SEDER PLATE

This plate contains the symbolic foods used during the seder meal

Z'roa - a roasted bone symbolizing the sacrificial Passover lamb and God's outstretched arm which led the Jews out of slavery in Egypt.

Beitzah - a roasted egg symbolizing renewal, spring and the offering historically made during this season at the time of the Second Temple in Jerusalem.

Chazeret - Another bitter herb

Karpas - greens symbolizing the freshness of spring. These are dipped in saltwater, which symbolize the tears of slavery.

Maror - Bitter herbs symbolizing the bitterness of slavery.

Charoset - a sweet condiment, often made from apples, wine, nuts and cinnamon, symbolizing the mortar used by slaves.
